Vendors earn an average of $45/day, with the highest performing vendors reporting single day earnings up to $400. In 2016, Street Sense continued to expand new platforms for self-expression and the production of content aimed at public engagement. By years end, we were producing content in print, film, illustration, photography, audio and theater and staged performance. 51 un-duplicated vendors participated in workshops that produce this content. These workshops are led by artists in residence, practicing professionals who donate their time to the organization. These workshops provide homeless men and women a forum to express their views while raising their self-esteem. In 2016, the theater workshop led to 14 public performances before a total audience of 843 persons. Additionally, Eight film screenings were attended by 387 persons; and five photography exhibits were attended by 380 persons.
